Consent Form

This research study is designed to examine how people make judgments and decisions. You will be asked to answer questions that will help us discover some of the systematic patterns of human judgment and decision making.

You will be asked questions about your attitudes, beliefs, and preferences. Some of the questions may involve sensitive topics, but there are no foreseeable risks to participating in this study.

It should take you approximately 30 minutes to complete this survey. Participation in this study is voluntary. You can choose not to take part. You can choose not to finish the questionnaire or omit any question you prefer not to answer without penalty or loss of benefits.

Your participation in this study will be confidential and purely voluntary. Your responses to these questions will remain anonymous, and the data will be analyzed in aggregate form.

If you have any questions or complaints please contact David Tannenbaum, Department of Management, University of Utah, by email at david.tannenbaum@utah.edu. You can also contact the Institutional Review Board (IRB) if you have questions regarding your rights as a research participant, or if you have questions, complaints or concerns which you do not feel you can discuss with the investigator. The University of Utah IRB may be reached by phone at (801) 581-3655 or by e-mail at irb@hsc.utah.edu.
